Check of the records of the office of the Clerk of Court, Flathead County, discloses that Certificate of Marriage No. 11716 was issued to ISMAIL BOGI ABUL-HUDA EL FARUQI of Boston, Massachusetts, and LOIS IBSEN of Lakeside, Montana. FARUQI was listed as born January 1, 1921, Jaffa, Palestine, with parents IBRAHIM ADHAM EL FARUQI and RAIFEH M. EL FARUQI. IBSEN was listed born July 25, 1926 at Plentywood, Montana of FRED and RACHEL IBSEN. The certificate was filed September 4, 1951.

No record of any of the above parties was found with the Flathead Merchant's Association, the Flathead County Sheriff's Office, or the Kalispell Police Department.

[redacted], advise the IBSENS have lived in Flathead County for about six years. Mr. FRED IBSEN is retired, having previously lived in the vicinity of either Glasgow or Plentywood, Montana. The IBSENS are regarded as very conservative people in that they are quiet living, have no intimate friends among the local residents, and are apparently well off financially. They are regarded as entirely loyal Americans and have never exhibited any sympathies or associations with Communism.

LOIS IBSEN is a musician with considerable apparent interest in her music. She has stated to [redacted] that she met FARUQI while both were attending the University of Indiana. During the summer of 1950 FARUQI rented a small cabin [redacted] at Lakeside. He stayed in Lakeside during the entire summer months and caused considerable local comment due to his dressing in native Arabian dress frequently. [redacted] had many conversations with him during which FARUQI gave no indication of antagonism towards the United States or its form of Government. He informed [redacted] that he was studying philosophy with the idea of eventually going back to his homeland and engaging in politics but never expounded his particular political philosophy. [redacted] states that from these conversations he does not feel FARUQI is engaged in any subversive activity against the United States.

According to the University records, FARUQI was born January 1, 1921 at Jaffa, Palestine and recorded his home address as care of [redacted], Ministry of Public Works, Damascus, Syria.

His father was recorded as IBRAHIM ADHAMA EL FARUQI and his mother as RAIFAH M. A. EL FARUQI.

While at Harvard University he resided at 1673 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts and 282 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

In connection with his entrance to Harvard University, he was recommended by the following members of the University of Indiana faculty: [redacted], Assistant Professor of Philosophy, [redacted], Professor Law, [redacted], Assistant Professor of Education, [redacted], Assistant Dean, Graduate School.

Boston Informant T-1, of known reliability, advised the reporting Agent that FARUQI was a Palestinian Arab who attended Harvard University with private means of education, i.e., without Government grant or support. He was in the United States under a student visa and the refusal of the Harvard University authorities to permit him to reregister and complete his Doctorate was predicated upon academic reasons. (he was copying his thesis from theses previously submitted and on file in the University Library.)

This source had periodic contact with FARUQI during 1949-1950 and had no information of significance in connection with his background or interest.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Boston, Massachusetts, contained information relating to EL FARUQI under their file A-6-967442, the details of which have been previously set forth in connection with this investigation.
